In addition to core training, participants can access childcare, medical care, structured planning exercises, counseling, credit repair, and specialized financial education.
Target Population	Tompkins County and six adjacent counties, with a focus on the City of Ithaca, New York.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	Alternatives Federal Credit Union was founded in 1979 and has offered IDAs since 1998. Its first efforts were through the National Federation of Community Development Credit Unions' VISTA IDA Program and the American Dream Demonstration program. Under this project, Catholic Charities is providing referrals to the program and delivering case management and crisis intervention services to participants, as well as employment support. Nonfederal matching funds are from private and foundation sources and the National Federation of Community Development Credit Unions. As a financial institution, Alternatives Federal Credit Union is providing an array of financial services to participants, such as no minimum balance accounts and free checking.
